

Frutiger

barbara mathews Aero

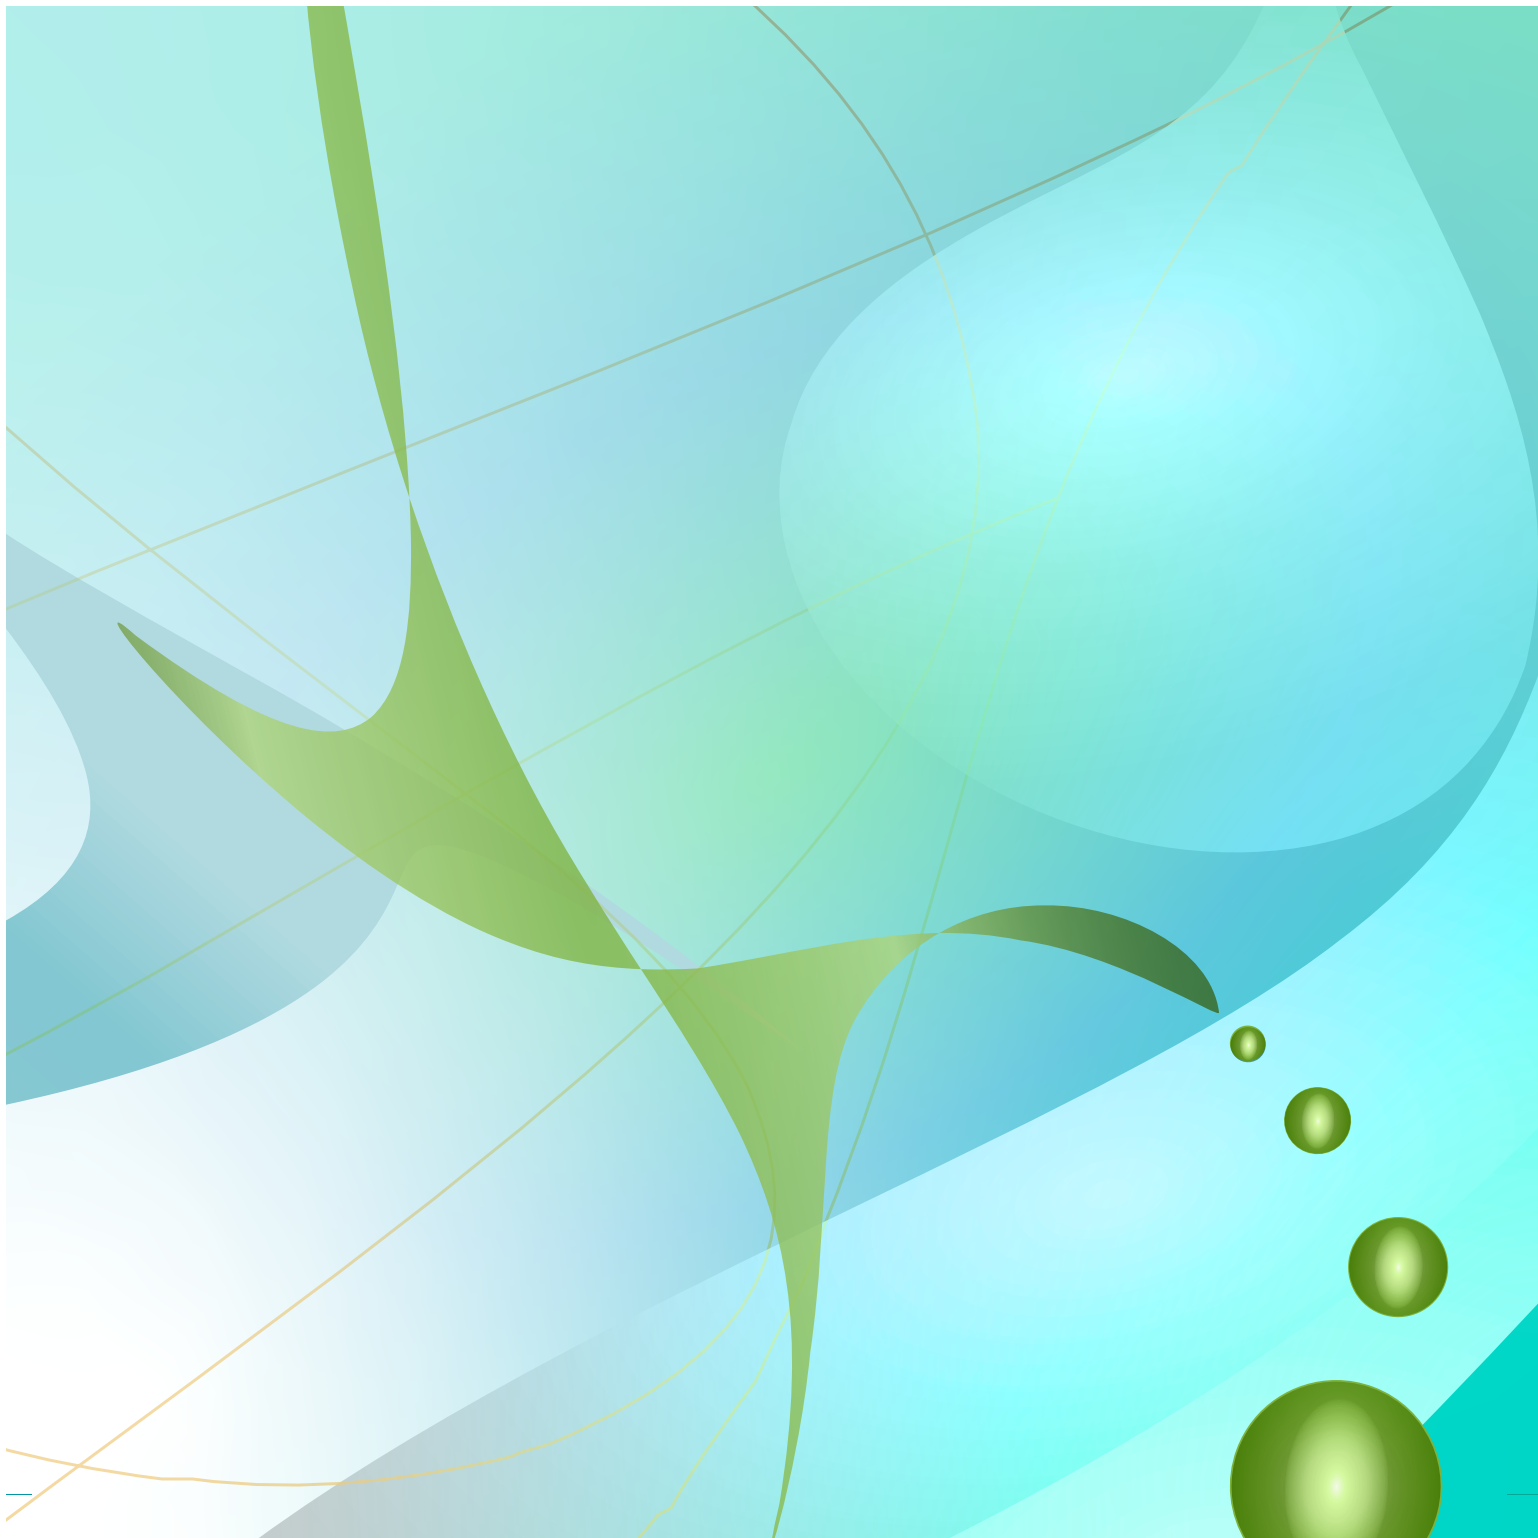

A retro-futuristic art movement and tech aesthetic which combines natural/organic colors, images, and elements with the timely graphic aesthetic that came with the era of technology optimism in the mid 2000s-early 2010s.

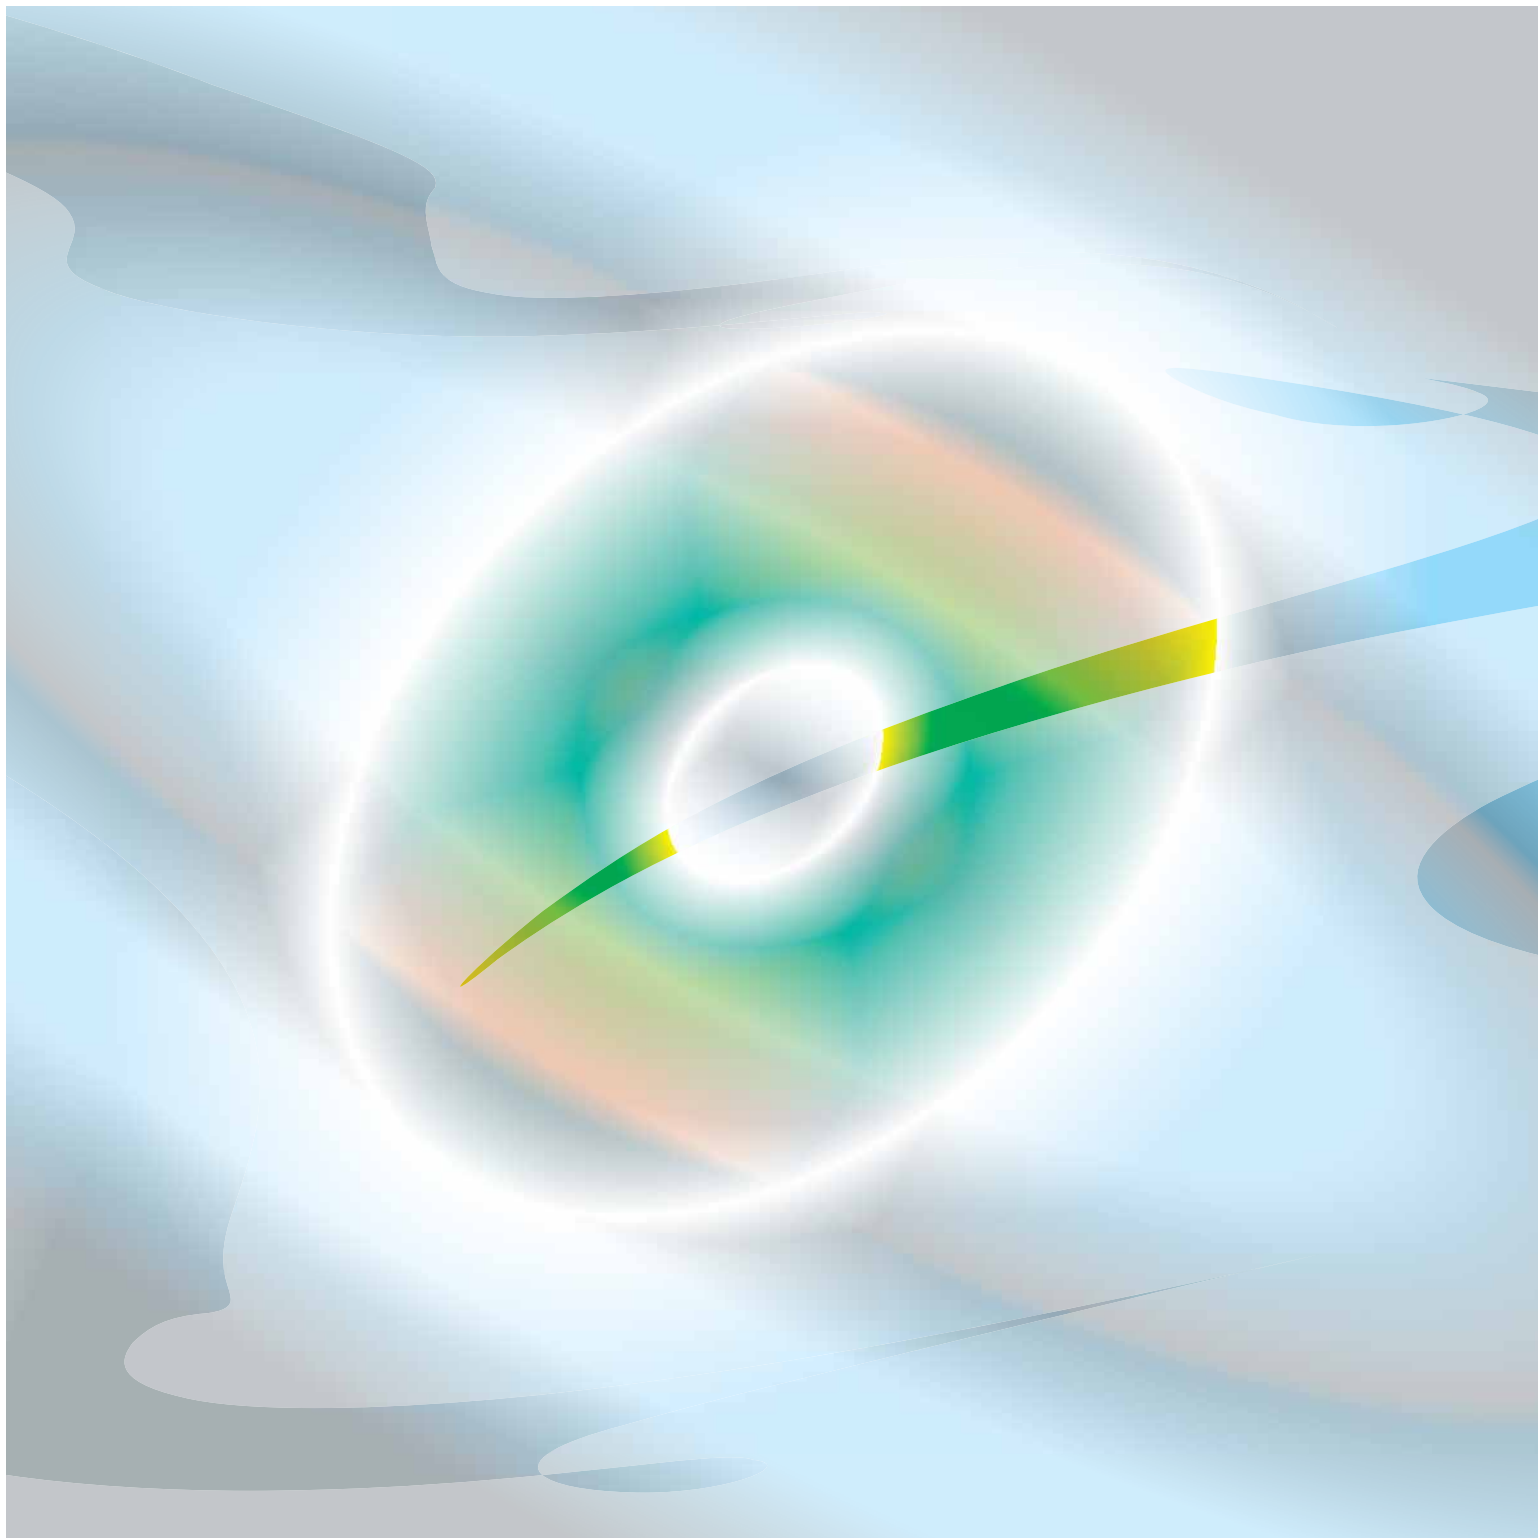

Rules

- Must use abstracted natural elements (ocean waves, water droplets, etc.).
- Must use saturated color palette, especially greens and blues.
- Must use glossy organic shapes, 3D depth, with skeuomorphism incorporation.
- Must use retro-futuristic design, including glass-like textures, 3D bubbles, color gradients, sleek interface (with no use of text).
- Must use objects and elements in plane to form a clean, glossy, sleek composition.
